Flynn, Smithey law groups announce formal affiliation

By: Daily Record Staff | September 23, 2020

Ellen Flynn and Joyce Smithey are excited to announce a formal affiliation between Flynn Law Group, LLC and Smithey Law Group, LLC that will provide them with a new platform for mutual growth and client success in the employment law and medical malpractice arenas.

Flynn, a renowned trial attorney who founded her firm this year, will serve as an of counsel attorney with Smithey, an employment and labor law firm in Annapolis, while continuing to litigate medical malpractice cases through Flynn Law Group.

A graduate of The Catholic University of America's Columbus School of Law, Flynn brings more than 23 years of experience as a trial attorney to Smithey. She is barred in Maryland, the District of Columbia, and Connecticut, and has been admitted to practice before the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland, the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Flynn will continue to represent clients in medical malpractice, nursing home abuse, and personal injury matters through Flynn Law Group LLC. At Smithey, she will assist clients with diverse employment issues including discrimination based on age, gender, national origin, race, religion and disability accommodation, wrongful discharge and retaliation, employment agreements and wage and hour issues and sexual harassment.
