

Cannabis and The Workplace

Co-Sponsored by:

The Network
for Public Health Law

&

UNIVERSITY of MARYLAND
FRANCIS KING CAREY
SCHOOL OF LAW

The implications of the decriminalization of cannabis and the impact on employment.

Tuesday, June 13, 2023

9:00 am - 3:30 pm

University of Maryland Francis Carey School of Law

500 W. Baltimore Street

Baltimore, MD 21201

Agenda

8:30 a.m. Arrival & Sign-in

9:00 a.m. Greetings & Welcome

Alvin O. Gillard, Executive Director, Maryland Commission on Civil Rights
Renee McDonald Hutchins, JD, Dean of Francis Carey School of Law

9:15 a.m. Cannabis Referendum & Legalization Work Group

Mathew Swinburne, Associate Director for the Network for Public Health
Law's Eastern Region

Andrew Garrison, Chief of Policy and Government Affairs, Maryland
Cannabis Administration
Delegate Nicole Williams

10:45 a.m. Break

11:00 a.m. Implications of Decriminalization of Marijuana

Delegate Debra Davis

Courtney Davis, Executive Director, Marijuana Matters

Yanet Amanuel, Director of Public Policy, ACLU

Senator Jill Carter

12:30 p.m. Lunch

1:30 p.m. Cannabis Enforcement Panel Discussion

Cleveland L. Horton II, Deputy Director, MCCR

Joyce Smithey, Managing Partner of Smithey Law Group LLC

Heather Heilman, Attorney of Kahn, Smith & Collins, PA

Garrett Wozniak, Attorney of Kollman & Saucier P.A.

Glendora C. Hughes, General Counsel, MCCR

3:00 p.m. Closing